

ITHACA CITY CEMETERY WALKING TOUR

Learn about the gravestones of free African Americans and formerly enslaved African Americans in the Ithaca City Cemetery as we walk through various sections of this 16-acre municipal cemetery and green space.

Sunday, October 15 @ 2 pm

Meet at the main entrance gates to the Ithaca City Cemetery on University Avenue. Street parking is available nearby on University Ave. and on Linn St.

We recommend wearing sturdy shoes and weather-appropriate clothing. The tour will happen rain or shine and requires uphill walking and walking on uneven terrain.

This event is free and open to the public.
